FAKE CHARITIES

These are very popular around the holiday season. Leaflets & phone calls from organizations with familiar-sounding names will ask you to donate for a good cause. Be safe, do some research on the company before making any charitable donations!

E-CARD/E-MAIL DANGER

Almost everyone with an email will receive these little messages spreading holiday cheer. Don't click links in emails, unless you know the sender. Be sure to double check the email address to verify it's accuracy if something looks strange.

OLD-SCHOOL PICKPOCKETING

Busy stores and shopping centers are prime spots for pickpockets to occur. Best practice is to wear purses across the body and wallets in front pockets or inside a closed jacket. Be sure to carry the bare minimum with you (ID & debit/credit card).

MUST-HAVE GIFT SCAMS

The 'it' gift. High demand, low supply and inflated prices. Websites may pop up offering an item at an unbelievable low price. Be careful, don't fall for this deal - the advertiser usually doesn't have the product, and will take your payment information instead.

PUBLIC 'LIE-FI'

Scammers will target hotel visitors, mall shoppers, coffee shop clients to get you to download a program before connecting to the Wi-Fi network. This program will compromise your personal information and identity. Best practice is to stay off of public Wi-Fi's.
